Notes and Guidance

When should the Monitoring Officer be notified of disclosable pecuniary interests?

As a member or co-opted member, you must, before the end of 28 days beginning with the day on which you became a member or co-opted member of the authority, notify the authority's monitoring officer of any disclosable pecuniary interests which you or your spouse or civil partner or equivalent have at the time when the notification is given. It is important to keep your register of interests up to date.

On re-election or re-appointment as a member or co-opted member you should notify the Monitoring Officer of any disclosable pecuniary interests which you or your spouse or civil partner or equivalent have, and which you have not previously notified. You should do this before the end of 28 days beginning with the day on which you were re-elected or re-appointed.

Following any disclosure of an interest not on the council's register or the subject of a pending notification, you must notify the Monitoring Officer of the interest within 28 days beginning with the date of disclosure. (A pending notification is one where the Monitoring Officer has been notified of the interest, but it has not yet been entered in the register).

Sensitive Information

If you have an interest the nature of which is that you and the Monitoring Officer considers that disclosure of the details of the interest could lead to you, or a person connected with you, being subject to violence or intimidation, then details of that interest will be excluded from the public register. Instead, the register will state that you or your spouse or civil partner or equivalent have an interest, the details of which are withheld because of this provision.

Please contact the Monitoring Officer if you wish to discuss this subject.

Whose interests must be included?

The Act provides that the interests which must be notified are those of a member or co-opted member of the authority, or

- those of a spouse or civil partner of the member or co-opted member
- those of a person with whom the member or co-opted member is living as husband/wife
- those of a person with whom the member or co-opted member is living as if they were civil partners in each case where the member or co-opted member is aware that the other person has the interest.

Part A – Disclosable Pecuniary Interests

Section 1: Employment etc.

You must include details of, “any employment, office, trade, profession or vocation carried on for profit or gain”.

Please ensure that:

- you include a short description of the activity concerned: for example, "Computer Operator" or "Accountant"
- you give the name of any employer, e.g. the company which pays your salary or wages
- where an office is held, the name of the person or body who made the appointment is given

Please note that:

- the Monitoring Officer does not consider that receiving a basic or special responsibility allowance further to council duties to be a disclosable pecuniary interest
- there is no need to enter (as examples) “retired” or “retired doctor” – if there is nothing which applies to you or your spouse/partner under this section, please simply enter “None”.

Section 2: Sponsorship

You must include details of, “any payment or provision of any other financial benefit (other than from the Council of which you are a member or co-opted member) made or provided within the relevant period in respect of any expenses incurred by you in carrying out your duties as a member, or towards your election expenses. (The “relevant period” being the period of twelve months ending with the day when you make a notification). This includes any payment or financial benefit from a trade union within the meaning of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992.”

- which has not been fully discharged”
 1. A body in which you or your spouse, civil partner or equivalent have a beneficial interest means a firm in which you/they are a partner, or a body corporate of which you/they are a director, or in the securities of which you/they have a beneficial interest).
 2. “Director” includes a member of the committee of management of an industrial and provident society.

3. Land excludes an easement, servitude, interest or right in or over land which does not carry with it a right for you or your spouse, civil partner or equivalent (alone or jointly with another) to occupy the land or to receive income.

Please ensure that:

- you give the address or a brief description to identify the land and property
- if you live in the area of the Council of which you are a member or co-opted member, you include your home under this heading as owner, lessee or tenant

Please remember that:

- this provision is likely to include the address where you live
- the requirement relates only to land in the area of the Council in respect of which you are making the notification

Section 5: Licences

You must include details of, “any land which is within the area of your Council for which you or your spouse, civil partner or equivalent hold a licence (alone or jointly with others) to occupy for a month or longer.”

Please ensure that you give the address or a brief description to identify the land.

Section 6: Corporate Tenancies

You must include details of, “any tenancy where (to your knowledge)

- the landlord is the Council of which you are a member or co-opted member and;

That body (to your knowledge) has a place of business or land in the area of the council of which you are a member or co-opted member, and either,

- the total nominal value of the securities exceeds £25,000 or one hundredth of the total issued share capital of that body; or
- if the share capital of that body is of more than one class, the total nominal value of the shares of any one class in which you or your spouse, civil partner or equivalent have a beneficial interest exceeds one hundredth of the total issued share capital of that class."

Please note:

- "Securities" means shares, debentures, debenture stock, loan stock, bonds, units of a collective investment scheme within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and other securities of any description, other than money deposited with a building society
- You do not have to show the extent of your interest.

Section 8-Gifts and Hospitality

Please register any gifts or hospitality offered, whether accepted or declined, with an estimated value of £50 or above. There is a separate form to complete for this, which will be supplied by the Monitoring Officer on request.

Part B-Other Registerable Interests

Section 9

In this section of the form, you are required to disclose:

- a) any unpaid directorships
- b) any body of which you are a member or are in a position of general control or management and to which you are nominated or appointed by your authority
- c) any body
 - (i) exercising functions of a public nature
 - (ii) directed to charitable purposes or
 - (iii) one of whose principal purposes includes the influence of public opinion or policy (including any political party or trade union) of which you are a member or in a position of general control or management

Examples

Disclosable pecuniary interests (DPIs)

You have a DPI where the matter being discussed directly relates to your registered interest rather than just affecting it for example:

- If you live at 1 Acacia Avenue, you will have a DPI if you apply for planning permission for 1 Acacia Avenue or if the whole of Acacia Avenue is being considered for a Residents' Parking Zone.
- You will not have a DPI if 3 Acacia Avenue has put in a planning application (though you may have an NRI).
- awarding a contract to your own company.
- planning application for your own property.
- Resident Parking Zone includes your house.

all these are DPIs, so you should disclose them and withdraw (unless you have a dispensation). It is criminal offence if you fail to do so – Section 34 of the Localism Act (2011).

Other registerable interests (ORIs)

ORIs relate to unpaid directorships, membership of outside bodies, charities, lobby groups, trade unions, political parties, and so on. You must register them within 28 days of election / appointment to office and whenever your position changes. For example:

- Awarding / withdrawing grant funding or granting planning permission to a body of which you are a member, for example, community hall.

Both directly relate to the finances of an ORI. Both are therefore interests you should disclose, you should not participate in the discussion or vote and withdraw (unless you have a dispensation, or the public can address the meeting).

Non-registerable interests (NRIs)

Where a matter arises at a meeting which directly relates to your financial interest or wellbeing (and is not a DPI) or to a financial interest or wellbeing of a relative or close associate, you must disclose it.

- Determining an application submitted by your sister or your neighbour for a dog breeding licence.
- Partner with free parking permit and policy review decision to be made.
- You object in a private capacity to your neighbour's planning application.

All these three directly relate to the finances of you, a partner, relative or close associate. All are, therefore, interests you should disclose, and you should not take part in any discussion, not vote and not remain in the room, (unless you have a dispensation, or the public can address the meeting).

Where a matter arises at a meeting which affects your own financial interest or wellbeing or a financial interest or wellbeing of a relative or close associate or of a body included in your list of other registerable interests (ORIs).

- Awarding grant funding to a competitor to a community hall, where you are on the membership committee.
- Application for housing development on land near to partner's business property.
- Your neighbour applies for planning permission.

These examples affect the finances or wellbeing of an ORI or a relative / close associate.
